

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

We need to promote a wider range of views to be available to the public, and not a narrower range. We need diverse ownership and diverse control of media serving one location.